“ Regrettably, I only just learned of Bob Garrity's passing four and one-half years ago. He was the best teacher I ever had anywhere at any level - and I had some fine ones. He was so fine a teacher of Logic at Duquesne University in 1961 that I signed up without hesitation for his Ethics course the next semester. It was even more incisive and rewarding. He had a gift that was off the chart. I located and wrote to him a few years ago. He responded very courteously, though it was clear that he could not, thousands of students later, remember me in particular. (Why would he?!) I remember hanging on his every word in class about what he enjoyed reading (I immediately started working my way through the novels of Thomas Hardy) and ways in which his baby son in a highchair gave him insights into human behavior. I never had a one-on-one conversation with him (possibly a remark or two after class), but I've been referring to him for half a century. God bless you, Bob. Pray for all of us you let behind in your shadow. - Ed Blank, Pittsburgh PA.

To the Garrity Family:

I always received a smile and a kind word from your dad/husband when attending St. Joe and around Rensselaer. I regret not getting to know the Garrity children as well as I should have, but I hold you all close in my heart when I remember my time in Rensselaer. May the Holy Spirit assist you as you recognize signs that your dad/husband is still with you. Open your heart and synchronize your love with his essence. He lived a good life and was a good man. This simplistic knowledge of his life will help you smile when possibly doubting that he is still around. I am content knowing that my parents have a kindred soul to traverse the spiritual plane with. Both Ralph and Phyllis held your dad/husband in the highest of esteem. May God Bless you as you adjust to this physical plane without Dr. Robert John Garrity. Validate his existence as you communicate with him in a new way.

*With sincerity and love,
Mary Cappuccilli Kepa*

To echo what others have said, Dr. Garrity was such an amazing professor and educator. I took many classes with him, but my favorite was Aesthetes and Decadents. Dr. Garrity had ways of saying things that always stuck with you, made you chuckle that you think about long after the course is done. Thanks for being such a great part of SJC, Dr. Garrity!

“ Dr. Garrity was my favorite professor. His enthusiasm for language was infectious -- more than a decade after graduating I still look up words in the Oxford English Dictionary based on a fascination with etymology that he inspired in me. He personified a joyous love of learning, and he will be deeply missed.

“ Dear Mrs. Garrity, Judy and family,
We were so sorry to hear about Dr. Garrity. I have fond memories of spending a lot of time at your house with Judy and hanging out in your rec room where Dr. G enjoyed watching Jeopardy and his beloved Pittsburgh Steelers. He taught CCD, was a timer at our summer swim meets, and served as an excellent lector at St. Augustine Church. He will be missed. You are in our prayers.

“ Dr. Garrity was one of my favorite professors at Saint Joe. I'll never forget how excited he got about languages and tracing back their origins to other previous languages. He really make language seem interesting, and we always had interesting discussions during our classes. He was one of a kind, and he will definitely not be soon forgotten.

“ Dr Garrity was one of my fondest memories of SJC and definitely challenged me more than most. He taught me things about literature and life that I could have never learned from anyone else. I will always remember that smile, and the tilt of his head when he went to tell a story that went with the topic of the day. Oh how I learned to love literature through him.
Later, after graduation, he taught me how to pronounce some Gaelic words properly so that I could give a proper Irish Blessing and Welcome my New Brother-In-Law into our Family! So to you Dr Garrity - I say "Go raibh maith agat a chara" - translated "Thank you my friend." Our lives are better for you and your teachings.

What a sad loss for the SJC family. Future Pumas will certainly miss out on having a great professor like him! My thoughts and prayers are with the Garrity family and the entire SJC community.
