John R. "Jack" Daniels

May 30, 1945 - April 23, 2024

John R. “Jack” Daniels, aged 78, of Rensselaer, Indiana, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, April 23, 2024, at Majestic Care of Lafayette, Indiana. He was born on May 30, 1945, in LaPorte, Indiana, to the late Clarence Lawson and Helen Catherine (Latz) Daniels.

Jack's educational journey led him through White County public schools and St. Augustine Catholic School in Rensselaer. His professional path was diverse, marked by retirement from truck driving, self-employment as a woodcutter, and a myriad of other skills he deftly wielded throughout his career. He found solace and community at the First Christian Church of Remington and cherished moments spent at the Remington Senior Center, where Dominoes and camaraderie filled his days.

In John's legacy, he leaves behind his children, Melissa Sue Gates and Christopher Allen Daniels; a multitude of grandchildren and great-grandchildren; siblings, Roger Allen (Mary) Daniels, Walter Daniels, Karen Sue Galbreath, sister-in-law Jo Daniels, and former wife Charlotte Cooper.

John is reunited in eternity with his parents, one son, John Richard Daniels Jr., one granddaughter, and two sisters.

Friends and family are welcomed to gather in remembrance on Monday, April 29, 2024, from 10:00 am Central Time until the time of service at Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer. Pastor Paul Dyke will lead the funeral service at 11:00 am Central Time. John's final resting place will be Memory Gardens of Rensselaer.

In honoring his memory, contributions to the Jasper County Community Services, 967 E. Leopold Street, Rensselaer, IN 47978 or the First Christian Church of Remington, 8 W Virginia St, Remington, IN 47977, would be deeply appreciated, in lieu of flowers.
