“ Merry Christmas, Little Brother. On this day my thoughts travel back in time to the many Christmases we shared and what memories I have. Like I remember when you got your first wind-up train set...and your very first bicycle. I envied you so!!! How could Santa bring you a bike and not me?!?! Thanks for letting me ride it, even if it was a "boys" bike and not a "girls" bike. Years later, I had to dole out a fortune to you at 50 cents per hour to have the pleasure of riding your bike, a different one than that original one, of course. Thanks for being my dear little brother. I have always loved you, and I always will. Promise. I will end by telling you what a beautiful little girl your Emmy Jeanne is. She walks, she talks and she is just adorable. You would be so proud!!!!!! You have a wonderful family, as do I.
Love you so much, and miss you more than I can say, Dorothy

Dorothy - December 25, 2020 at 07:42 PM

“ Arnie, Just returned from a trip to see our girls and grandchildren. Also got to see Scott & Mary Jo who shared pictures of Emmy's 3rd birthday party. What a little doll she is. She is just adorable. Scott is such a great grandpa to her, and Mary Jo is a wonderful grandmother. You would be so proud of all of them. I do so wish you could be here to experience your great-granddaughter. You would spoil the daylights out of her. Hopefully we will get to see Emmy next month. We are looking forward to that. Hopefully Covid 19 doesn't cause us to cancel our trip. I think of you daily, miss you terribly, and thank God that He placed you in my life as my dear loving brother. Till next time, Your loving sister Dorothy

“ Little Brother, Today marks the anniversary of the day you left this life two years ago. The time has gone by so quickly!!! Not a day goes by that I don't think of you, and long to see you, to talk to you. I miss you so much!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! What gets me through is the knowledge that you are no longer in pain. Remembering how you suffered hurts, but you were tough and you were a great example of courage. I am so proud of how you handled your self in the face of adversity. Always know how much you are loved and how much I valued you. Someday we will meet again, and what a glorious day that will be. I love you, Dorothy

“ Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday to you, Happy Birthday, Dearest Brother, Happy Birthday to you!!! That night 69 years ago when you made your grand entrance into this world is vivid in my mind today. I can recall it like it was yesterday. In fact, I just might remember it better than I remember yesterday. HaHa. It was such a great event for me, and I was always proud to have you as my "little brother". We shared many happy times together and my mind overflows with great memories. I miss you so much, but I am so glad you are now "free", with no more pain. Remembering you with much love, Dorothy

P.S. Jim was always proud to have you as a "brother", as well, and he sends birthday wishes.

“ Dear AJRG, On this the 1 year anniversary of the day you winged your way to heaven, I just want to tell you how special it was for me to have you as my "little brother". We shared a special friendship, a special bond and we were always there for each other, no matter what. Not many siblings are that fortunate. It has been a difficult year without you, but knowing that you are no longer suffering, no longer in pain has gotten me through. I often go to the phone to call you, to check on how you're doing, to just hear your voice, or to ask you a question that only you would know the answer to, then I realize that you're not going to answer, so I talk to you anyway. I am looking forward to that glorious day when we once again meet face to face, along with Mother & Daddy and all the others of our family who have gone before. We'll have a wonderful family reunion!!! Until that day, just know that I love you dearly, miss you in a really big way, and am grateful for the time we had to spend together here on earth. I treasure the memories and the good times we had. Remember how much all of us love you, and how much of an impact you had on so many lives. You left your mark, and people won't soon forget that. Rest in Peace, AJRG. I LOVE YOU, Dorothy (Jim sends his love, too)

You left me 7 months ago, and although I'm so glad that you are now in your heavenly home with Jesus and all of our departed family members, and YOU ARE FREE OF PAIN, I miss you so much. You will always be with me in my heart, and someday we will see each other again.
Love You, Miss You, Dorothy

“ Dear Arnie, When I married your sister Dorothy, I had no idea I would get such a wonderful brother as well in the bargain! With your passing, so many memories about you, about experiences we shared, and so on come flooding back. The only consolation I can see in looking right now at your leaving us, is that you were able to leave your pain behind as well. In that regard, you are such a great role model in terms of how you dealt with your pain and still strived to "keep on going" every minute, every hour, every day despite the agony. You kept such a good attitude! You are now truly in a "better place". I look forward to being in that place myself someday. So, I close simply by saying, "See you later"! Proud to be your brother, Jim

Jim Lefler - September 04, 2018 at 10:09 PM

“ Little Brother, I miss you so much, but I am so happy that you are no longer in pain. I will forever cherish the brother-sister relationship we had and the memories we shared. You were the best brother any girl could ever have, and I thank you for always being there for me. Now I do have one question: Who am I going to turn to when I need to call you to find an answer that only you know the answer to?

Until my time is up and I meet you in heaven, always know that I LOVE YOU,
Dorothy
