“ Growing up as Shirley's friend, Ruth was my second mom (Ruth A. was my first mom, so Ruth's win!). She would get after us girls and always commanded our attention and respect. Then she would grin and say "get out of here," and we could hear her laugh as we scampered away. She was a wonderful woman and I loved her. When I would see her at Parkview Haven, she got excited and waved her arms. That woman holds a special place in my heart. Rest in peace, Ruth - job well done!
