“ We were Al's neighbors for the last nine years. We can still remember how, shortly after we moved into our home, Al and his son came over to meet us and welcome us to the neighborhood. Our daughter, who was very young at the time, came to know him as "neighbor Al," and always looked forward to his visits and conversations when he would stop by. It was nice to know that he felt welcome to drop by and chat with us as we sat in the garden or the barn, just shooting the breeze.

Al did so many thoughtful, little things that made him a wonderful neighbor and friend. From plowing our driveway for us before we had the means to do it ourselves, to thoughtfully lending us Page's old play kitchen set for our young daughter to play with, he was always doing little things to help or show kindness.

My daughter still remembers how Al told her that we had a "Smartie Bush" growing in our garden. Curious, she walked out into the garden, and to her amazement, there were packages of candy "Smarties" tucked into one of the plants in the garden bed! It was wonderful to see the impish joy on his face as he watched her discover the candy!

We will miss you dear neighbor....The world feels a little less kind with you gone.

Sending love and prayers to your family,

Matt, Rhonda, and Kaylyn Sorrells
