“ I remember she worked at the library when our kids were younger, before I started working there. I also remember her desire to play guitar and the things she came to get from the library to help her learn. Prayers go to your family, Amber, and especially to your kids. I can't imagine how much they will miss you...and how much your hubby will miss you. My heart goes out to you all.

“ *Dear Dan & family:
We know how hard it is to watch your loved one slowly slip away. Their quality of life has gone. You don't wish them back in the way life had gone for Amber. She is in heaven and is now at peace.
Our prayers are with you and your family.
