“ The day Bella was born, she sure took us for a roller coaster ride! In her 7 years she taught me so much about love and compassion. There are so many memories of this sweet angel baby, but my favorite is the day she came home from Rileys. She beat the odds! She was a warrior until her last breath! Finger paints and her fascinated with my pregnant belly. Poking Rex in the eye ball the first time she met him because she didnt want that baby by her. Lol! Queen of nasty looks. If you made her mad, you knew it! But that smile, oh Bella girl, you had the sweetest smile that would light up the entire room. Ill love you forever little one.
