“ I so loved Anne Vander Lught. She and Len were very accepting of my son Christopher and myself when we first started attending the CRC of South Bend. I was very phobic and they were so wonderful to us. Anne and I kept writing each other all these years and I am heartbroken she passed on. She will be in my heart forever.

“ Love to the family of Ann. I had the privilege of knowing her and her husband while she lived in DeMotte loved having them a part of our community. Prayers and hugs to the family.
