

Annette "Ann" M. DeArmond

February 24, 1936 - September 12, 2011

Annette "Ann" M. (Walls) DeArmond, age 75, of Morocco, passed away at 1:10 P.M. on Monday, September 12, 2011. She was the daughter of Russell and Anna (Lear) Walls. Ann was born February 24, 1936, in Cleaton, Kentucky, a town which was named in honor of her Great-Grandmother, Hesky Cleaton Walls.

Ann lived in Porter County, Indiana, attending the Boone Grove Schools. On December 12, 1952, in Muhlenberg County, KY she married Shelby Austin DeArmond who survives. Ann was a homemaker and had been a nurse's aide for ten years. She had lived in Hammond, Rensselaer and Morocco, Indiana.

Surviving with her loving husband Shelby are five children, Nancy "Marie" Thomas, Brook; Russell "Russ" DeArmond, Remington; Lori DeArmond, Franklin, IN; Lisa Nagel, Kentland and Richard "Rick" (Niki) DeArmond, Lafayette; grandchildren, Josh Ellis, Phoenix, AZ, Schuyler DeArmond, Lafayette, Austin (Jessica) Williamson, Goodland, Kendra and Kaycee Nagel, Kentland, and Brittney DeArmond, Lafayette; three great-granddaughters, Maleah, Hayleigh and Jaevlye; brother, C.L. "Bud" (Diane) Walls, Valparaiso; sister, Fredia (Doug) Berg, LaPorte, IN. Other survivors include two special uncles, Billy and Vernon Walls, Crown Point, IN; special (former) son-in-law, Brad Thomas, Chandler, AZ; several nieces, nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews.

Ann was preceded in death by her daughter, Pamela, parents, Russell and Anna, three sisters, Nancy Walls, Geneva Clark and Peggy Rippe, granddaughter, Bethany Ellis and great-grandson, Landon Lovely.

Ann battled many medical issues over the years following a liver transplant in 1994. She will be greatly missed.

“ Saddened by the news of Aunt Ann's death. Seeing the photos posted for the memorial allowed me to know what I always thought... Aunt Ann enjoyed the blessing of family. As I reflect, I don't know if I can say Uncle Austin's name with out saying "Austin and Ann" as if it were one name. I always admired their strength and commitment to their marriage.

Although, I had not seen Ann for some time my father shared what news he knew and I always felt despite the medical hardships she endured Aunt Ann found many blessings through her children, grandchildren and her husband.

“ I only had the chance to meet you one time, but it was a very special memory. I was the maid of honor in Rick and Niki's wedding. What a beautiful day that was. He had no idea that you and his father would make it to the ceremony, but when he saw you heading towards the church, he was so overjoyed and cried tears of happiness. It was awesome to be a part of that. I thank you for raising a man like Rick, because he is a great friend to myself and husband and the absolute perfect match for my best friend. Rest peace, dear.

“ Although I of course don't remember it, you always reminded me that you were here waiting when I was brought home for the first time. It has always meant alot to me that you were so proud of that. I'm sure you and my mom are somewhere right now having one of your many conversations about the family and the old days. Love you

“ So many fond memories of my Aunt Annie....From the visits to Morocco and Hammond as a child to visit the family, her amazing pork tacos(that to this day, I have not had any as good as hers),our rides to KY and Ricky and I decorating her hair with Kleenex, our many talks until there was no battery left in the phone. I also remember years ago, her asking me, when I was a child, if I liked being called "Nanny", I answered, "No, not really". She responded, "How about this, you can call me Annie, if I can call you Nanny?" It worked for both of us!!! So today Aunt Annie may you rest in peace, and know that you are loved and will be greatly missed by many. Thank you for the many fond memories.
Love,
"Nanny"

“ When I first met Annette, during our first hug, she made me promise her something; To always love and take care of Lori. I promised her that I always would; I said this in her ear during our first hug. She pulled herself back and made me look her in the eyes and repeated; promise me that you will always love and take care of my Lollie! I looked back in her eyes with sincere respect and repeated; I promise to always love and take care of your Lollie. I will always love and take care of Annette's Lollie <3. It was a pleasure to have known you and again; I promise to always love and take care of your Lollie with sincere respect and all the love in my heart. Thank you Annette for letting me be a part of this family and gracing me with your Lollie. <3 <3 <3

“ Mom, you are so missed by all of us. Everywhere we turn we see your face and feel you around us. We can no longer wrap our arms around you and that is killing me. I know you worried about Dad right up until you took your last breath. We will take good care of him and help him to take care of everything. Rest now momma for you deserve peace. You are no longer suffering for the first time in many, many years. I love you with all my heart!!!!!! Your Lollie

“ Memories never leave you! I recall, as a small child, visiting the DeArmond house in NW Indiana. It was always a fun time, Ann was a great hostess. Later, as a young adult, I enjoyed the conversations with Ann. Such a pleasant and respectful human, beautiful soul! Several months ago I spoke with Ann, her voice was soft, I knew she was not with us for long. We had a beautiful conversation, talking about the family. Like Ann, I to treasure my family. My thoughts and prayers are with my cousins as they struggle to understand why their mom was taken away. Just know that your mom is in NO pain now. She is only sleeping, resting peacefully. You have incredible memories that will never leave you. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, LOVE leaves memories that no one can steal! Sending warm love from San Diego, you are in my heart and prayers. Your cousin, Greg Joines
