“ Our heartfelt condolences to Ken and Alan and their families.

Aunt Audrey was our remaining elder of that energetic generation who toiled and triumphed and still always had time to check on what the kids were up to! I remember her delightful sense of humor and the vigorous way she took on housework, and all work! She seemed to enjoy cooking for us, and I particularly recall rich chicken and rice with fresh mint leaves.

She engaged her sharp mind and quick wit with a spirit of understanding.

As much as she will be sadly missed, her sons and their families can now carry forward her legacy with strong, clear hearts. Peace be with you.
