“ I've know Barbara since we were in seventh grade together at Mt. Ayr School. She was best friends with my sister, Marjorie. We lost track of each other for several years. About twenty years ago, she was visiting the area, and stopped in at my store. I knew who she was right away. I always felt that she had such a positive attitude for someone who had such a rough childhood. Her life was so much different after she met her husband, and she felt truly blessed. Although, she still faced hardships (we all do) she had such a good outlook on life. I will miss our lengthy phone conversations, and occasional visits. Such a beautiful lady - inside and out.
