

Berneice R. Jackson

March 3, 1932 - December 24, 2023

Berneice R. Jackson, aged 91, passed away peacefully on December 24, 2023, at her residence. She was born on March 3, 1932, in Monon, IN, to Floyd and Nora (Smith) Warren. Berneice was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Robert Lee Jackson, on December 24, 1989. Their love story began with an engagement after only a month of knowing each other, culminating in marriage just four months later.

A proud graduate of Rensselaer High School, Class of 1950, Berneice embarked on a rich and fulfilling life journey. She initially worked as a bookkeeper at Jackson Funeral Chapel in the 1950s and later managed records for Dr. O'Brien. Her entrepreneurial spirit thrived as an Avon representative, leaving a mark in various professional pursuits.

Berneice's dedication to her community and family was remarkable. She was an active member of Trinity United Methodist Church, finding solace and purpose in her faith. A gifted seamstress, she crafted beautiful sweaters for her grandchildren, designed cheerleader and majorette uniforms for Rensselaer Central High School, and served as a custom seamstress for the Chicago Bears during their time in Rensselaer. Her talent extended to her daughter and daughter-in-law's wedding gowns, winter coats, and matching dresses for her daughters.

Her creative spirit knew no bounds. Berneice was a prolific painter, showcasing her art at local festivals and adorning the walls of restaurants with her masterpieces. Her mural in the home of Brian and Teresa Jackson remains a testament to her artistic legacy. Her written words also found life as she penned the story of her vibrant existence, with plans for a Volume II to capture her bustling life.

Berneice was a beacon of love and dedication within her family. Every evening, she prepared hearty dinners with all the fixings, demonstrating her unwavering affection for her loved ones. She grew a wonderful garden every year and canned the produce to sustain her family through the winter months. Her adventurous side shone through in her pursuits of mushroom hunting, fishing, and engaging in countless Scrabble games with her close friend, Byron Callahan.

Her mornings were a testament to her resilience as she braved freezing winter weather to check traps for muskrats and raccoons alongside her son. Berneice's commitment to her passions and relationships defined a life well-lived, leaving an indelible mark on those she encountered.

Berneice is survived by her children, Cheryl Ekstrom of Rensselaer, IN, Doris Foley of FL, Brian (Teresa) Jackson of Rensselaer, IN; grandchildren, Michael Ekstrom (Tammy Nuss), Marcus (Julie) Ekstrom, Matthew (Mandy Gilbert) Ekstrom, William Folely, Raeann (Jeff) Miller, Shelby (Josh) Rose; siblings, Dennis Warren, Dean Warren; many nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren.

She is preceded by her parents, husband, Robert, siblings, Nola Schneidt (Kenneth), David Warren (Roberta), Vera Warren, and grandson, Aaron Jackson.
