On September 11, 1965, Beverly married the love of her life, Charles L. "Chuck" Jones, who preceded her in death in 2009. Beverly dedicated much of her career to working as a bookkeeper at Ortman Fluid Power in Hammond, Indiana, where her attention to detail and commitment to excellence were highly valued by all who knew her. companionship of her cherished animals. She shared a special bond with her beloved dog, Lady, whose unwavering loyalty was a constant source of comfort and joy. Lady was more than just a pet; she was Beverly's faithful companion, offering love and companionship through every season of life.

“Bev was not just my mother-in-law, she was my friend. We shared many memories together at the Mohawk Club, Moose Club, and where ever Chucks band was playing. My favorite times were playing "hearts" with our husband's, laughing so hard we couldn't catch our breath, and Christmas Day when the grandkids were young and we would play games (especially charades), and listen to grandpa play music. "Grandma Bev" was a great hostess and there were lots of parties and good times at the Jones house in Dyer. She had a great sense of humor. The family joke was "where's Bev?" because she would get up and go to bed without a word when she was tired and had enough. No matter how many people were at her house! I have so missed our monthly phone calls from Demotte to NC and will always love and remember her. KAREN JONES

My memories of Aunt Bev is many. As a little girl, she was one of my aunts that took me to ballet lessons. As I got older, I remember her taking me to see alot of Elvis Presley movies at the Calumet Theater. As more years went by, I remember Aunt Bev, Aunt Sharon, my sister Darlene, friend, Margaret Augustine, neighbor Faye (Rowley) Czapl, and I would go to Taco Joe's every Thursday night in the Harbor. We always looked forward to that. I can't forget all the years I did her hair. Many stories and laughs were told. I remember alot of parties throughout the years. Alot of fun times. Aunt Bev was a loving, caring person. Always willing to help. Always there if you needed her without asking. We're blessed to of had her in our lives.
