

Brenda Ann Fentress

October 16, 1954 - July 9, 2023

Brenda Ann Fentress, 68, of DeMotte, IN, went to be with her Lord on Sunday, July 9, 2023. Brenda was born in Hammond, IN on October 16, 1954 and was the beloved daughter to Chester and Marlene (Seaman) Baliga.

After Brenda graduated from George Rogers Clark High School, in Whiting, IN, Class of 1972, she took classes through the University of Illinois. Brenda worked for NIPSCO for over 30 years, earning herself the title of Senior Customer Service Representative. She was an active member of St. Cecilia Catholic Church, singing in the church choir and playing on their dartball league. Brenda had a flair for acrylic painting, knitting, and caring for her flower garden.

Brenda is survived by her sons, Thomas (Laura) Fentress of DeMotte and Anthony (Anna) Fentress of Indianapolis; and one grandson, Shane Fentress.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Cremation rites will be afforded. Jackson Funeral Service of DeMotte has been entrusted with the families wishes.

“ I remember when I was a little girl. My cousin Brenda and my aunt who was a year older than my cousin. Brenda would baby sit us and I remember scaring both of them. Because at that time, dark shadows had started playing on TV. And I would call out Quentin Collins and Barnabas Collins. And they would get scared. Brenda was a good cousin she will be kissed. My heart goes out to her family whom she was very proud of.
