PS

Bain was our neighbor since we moved here in 2017. We had him over several times including a neighborhood cook out here. I gave him a ride if he needed one and kept him supplied with my homemade apple butter. He spoke a lot telling stories about his parents and siblings and was very sad when his brother passed away. He had talked to Denny about cutting down & cutting up trees in his woods behind our barn. He and I shared many pictures of the wildlife in our neighborhood. My eldest son is just a few months younger than he was so this was very hard to hear about- at his young age. Our condolences to his sister and surviving family- and we offer any help needed to Sandi.
