“ I spent many years with Cathie when we were much younger. One of my favorite memories goes as such: Cathie always seemed to have the most comfortable beds. I would watch the kids and go crash in her room. One night I rolled out of the bed so fast I didn't know what hit me. I jumped back on the bed and started to fall asleep and no sooner than I did I flipped right out of bed again and was like what the heck. Jumped back on the bed on to realize Cathie and AJ were lifting the mattress up every-time I got back on! We laughed, and laughed for years.

There was another time that Marla, Cathie, and I were all hanging at the house and I believe it was Peyton chopped the tip of his finger off in the door and I was terrified in the corner repeating oh my god, oh my god, oh my god. Cathie used to make fun if me so bad for that one she would frequently say I don't know what the hell you were doing hiding in the corner lololol. I'll never forget the time we had a few drinks and decided to do my eyebrows. She took half my eyebrow off and we laughed for YEARS. However I cried that day. Her friend Eric came and gave me the worst hair cut I had ever had in my life. She laughed for years I didn't! Once we were in Wisconsin and I was driving really slow in a faster lane and this mad man came flying by screaming out the window, "Move over bit*ch" and Cathie would quote the Ludacris song every-time we thought of it. We could go a year without talking and pick right back up where we left off. We recorded a home video one time. Worst video in the world. Van wanted me to try to slug him as hard as I could in the arm and I missed and hit his ear!! Cathie never let me live that down. I could go on and on for days. Sue, you will forever and always be the most beautiful, person in the world to me. I will cherish every single memory we have. This page just doesn't have enough room. I'm going to miss your sarcastic, remarks forever. I'm sorry we weren't closer these last few years. Love you Sue.

“ Me and Cathie just vibed so good together. She was such a good hearted person, she loved the people she cared about so deeply. She was always there if you needed someone and made you feel like you could talk to her about anything. She loved driving around and listening to music. I remember when I was going to run to Walmart she would say I will swoop you up and give ya a ride and go with. I hadn't seen her since she moved to Lafayette, but always hoped she was doing good and was happy. I will always wish I would have reached out and kept in touch with her better. She was one of a kind.
