“ Dear Family, I offer my deepest condolences for your devastating loss. I'm sure that words could never ease the pain and the heartache that you are suffering. May you be comforted by God's loving promise to be reunited together again in the future Paradise. God is very aware of the pain and the many tears that you cry. Please be consoled by his loving promise at Acts 24:15. You're in my prayers. (Revelation 21:4, 5)

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Mroczek family with these comforting words: "So they came to the house of the presiding officer of the synagogue, and he saw the commotion and those weeping and wailing loudly. After stepping in, he said to them: "Why are you weeping and causing this commotion? The child has not died but is sleeping." At this they began to laugh at him scornfully. But after sending them all outside, he took the child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the child was. Then, taking the hand of the child, he said to her: "Tal'i•tha cu'mi," which, when translated, means: "Little girl, I say to you, 'Get up!'" And immediately the girl rose and began walking. And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy." (Mark 5: 38-42) By using his God-given powers, Jesus will show that people can be brought back from death as easily as they can be awakened from a deep sleep. (John 5:25) This is the hope for, Miss. Caylynn, as well. This hope is for you too! I am very sorry for the loss of your precious daughter. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ healingwordsforu@gmail.com. For more information about God's Kingdom promises, please visit jw.org.
