“ When a loved one dies, it causes so much sorrow. One can tell by reading the condolences, that Charles Jones was deeply loved. It is my hope as a volunteer to bring to the family a comforting thought. In the Bible book of Job there is a beautiful comparison of a tree that gets cut down yet sprouts again, to a man who gets 'cut down' by death yet will be brought back to life. It says at Job 14:7,14,15: "For there exists hope for even a tree. If it gets cut down, it will even sprout again... If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You (God) will call and I myself shall answer you. For the works of your hands you will have a yearning." Yes, the Creator longs to bring back to life those who have died. What a wonderful promise and sure future for those asleep in death. We express our deepest sympathy to all the family and hope you find comfort in this time of loss.##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ My grandfather was so much to so many people. Losing him is painful to our entire family. He was the musician, the White Sox Fan, the story teller and could always provide a good laugh and a "I love you too, hun." The grandkids would sit around his feet as he held his guitar and sang "the green grass grows around and around" to all of us. We waited in anticipation as he caught his breath and belted out that final verse. It made us all laugh.

Oh, he could be a pistol, I'm sure, afterall he is a Jones...but he loved my grandma and she loved him. I witnessed that precious love when she said her final goodbye.

When they spoke to each other. It's a memory I won't forget. Grandpa knew he was going to leave all of us. He told us many times, but we didn't want to believe it. We all mourn our loss deeply. He was a man that provided many great memories and lived a fun and happy life. Thanks for letting me know you're okay, grandpa. I got the message last night and yes, we will take care of grandma...I promise. I love you and grandma...dearly.##imported-begin##Eva, Tony, Stephanie and Samantha Tokarz##imported-end##
