“ Aunt Cor and Uncle Case were very special to me during my childhood and teen years. They never knew the great influence they had on my life. May the grace of Jesus Christ give you peace and assurance that she is free from all earthly cares and weaknesses and is presently singing with the angels before the throne of God. We will see her again.

“ Mrs. Bolt was my first Sunday School teacher when I was 3 years old. I remember singing "Heavenly Sunshine" with her - with the sun pouring in through the big classroom window. She was my Mom's good friend through many years of Ladies Circle. She is one of the people who defined "Church" to me.

“ Cora was my cousin Case's widow. She was a delightful person. Although I last saw her at Case's wake--I live in southern Indiana-- she's always been a special person in my heart. I loved Case as he was my big cousin while growing up as we both lived in Munster. My deepest sympathy to all. Jean Hough Furlong
