“ Words alone cannot express "our / community" loss of this "Man of Many hats, one of which was a respected elder for the young followers in the stressed out world, it seemed apparent to "Boone's" defining reflection In character was just relax don't get excited, the REALLY bit of excitement I saw in him was his story telling, example a time one of his daughters had invited him as much as a guest I believe too was his being the taxi to a trip to the Jerry Springer show, (oh how he seemed to Love spending time with family particularly this one occasion) + the setting of the stage were guests who a friend of another friend on stage they might have been related, but the one was really expressing the concern over the other had having a meat fetish and was insisting on usually having meat (pork chop, slice of ham, or simply piece of bologna) tucked within their clothing then the one with the meat got upset and started reaching under their clothes and started throwing it at the other one and Dan say whew he about got KO'd by a flying pork chop.

Here's to you Boone I lift my glass to you and forever remember you in dark days when I need a Grand smile, God has blessed many because of your spirit!!

“ Boone you still had so much to live for, I figured you still had 15 or 20 left. I feel so sorry for you and your family that it got cut short....Like I said on FB, it was so nice last yr, when you saw me at the store & invited me over & we caught up on an afternoon, on the 20 yrs since we had worked together. I feel even more fortunate now to have spent recent time with you again.

One thing that hasn't been mentioned is, that Boone was involved in politics and he was a dedicated Democrat. And he use to like to talk about when he use to work at the poles during elections. Boone was also a dedicated Union member, he was a union official at 2 separate places that he worked at. In the late '90's Boone was the union steward when we worked at Soesbe's. I truly admired Dan's dedication to the cause of organized working people.

Dan, I'm so sorry that you're gone way too soon, my friend.
