“ I cannot express how deeply saddened I am to have heard about David's passing. He was a brilliant attorney, a skilled artist, and the kindest, most wonderful friend I've ever known. David consistently stood up for what was right. He always did right by the people he loved. You will be missed by many, loved by all who were lucky enough to call you "friend".

“ Dear neighbor Patty & Bill, and David's family -

What a shock to learn of David's passing at a young age! My condolences to you all - who cherished his life among us. Every day I am reminded of his artistic talent by a sketch he made of me and grandson Adam which is displayed in my living room. Oh - what rejoicing there had been when we learned a baby was joining you next door in 1968. Be comforted with memories of a talented, good man and a Christian hope.
