“ I am a volunteer here in Lafayette trying to console and bring comfort to those who are mourning for the loss of their loved ones. especially young Mr. Coates. I am deeply sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere sympathy.

We can take comfort in knowing that our dead loved ones are resting according to John 11:11 with no pain and waiting for the day when they will be awakened from their deep sleep. What a great day to look forward to.

Another promise that is worth waiting for is in John 5:28,29 that says in part "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". How glad we can be that our dead loved ones who are in God's memory will awaken from the sleep of death to enjoy all the good things he has in store for those who love him!

Meanwhile, we know that God is the God of all comfort, and I hope that He will comfort your entire family during this difficult time of yours.

Once again, please accept my deepest sympathy and have a blessed day.##imported-begin##Dupe##imported-end##

“ We were so sorry to hear about Dave's passing. We always enjoyed talking to him on the phone when he called to talk to Jeff. He was so funny and a delight to work with. I always knew I could count on his help when I had trouble. He is already greatly missed.

“ Janet, Doris, Rosemary & all

We are so sorry to hear about David.

You know that he will be greeted with open arms and a great big hug.

We felt the Lord took your Mom too soon but maybe now there is a reason. So she didn't have to endure the pain of loosing David here and so she would be there to greet him in the hereafter.

It is just so sudden and so tragic that you girls have to go through this so soon while the pain of loosing yor Mom is so strong.

You are in our thoughts and Prayers.
