

David M. Nagel

March 7, 1950 - January 10, 2010

David Mathew Nagel, age 59, of Rensselaer entered Heaven on January 10, 2010. Dave was born in Rensselaer, IN on March 7, 1950, the son of Walter and Velma (Mathew) Nagel. He was a lifetime resident, graduating with the class of 1968 from Rensselaer Central High School.

Dave served with the Indiana National Guard during the mid 1970's and was a member of the Rensselaer School Board during the 1990's. He was the owner of Nagel Monument Lettering for over 30 years. Dave enjoyed attending the Palestine Christian Church and was overwhelmed by the love he felt by the people there. He was a fan of both modified sprint car racing and steam and gas engine shows and enjoyed attending these events with his family and friends. Dave also enjoyed fishing in Florida and one of his greatest joys was spending time with his grandchildren.

On February 8, 1975, in Rensselaer, he married one of the "Bachman Girls", Cindy, and she survives. Along with his loving wife he is survived by his parents, Walter and Velma Nagel of Rensselaer; his brother, Duane (wife: Debra) Nagel of Rensselaer; his four children, Zachary (wife: Randi) Nagel of Wolcott, IN, Josslyn (husband: Bob) Maciejewski of Rensselaer, Jacob (wife: Rebecca) Nagel of Wolcott, IN and Danelle Nagel of Indianapolis ; many nieces and nephews and his seven grandchildren, Andra, Reese, Chase, Treyton, Brooklyn, Avery and Addison..

“ Hi Cindy and family.
I tried to attend the visitation,
but there were too many people ahead and I had to go to work without giving you a hug. If I do not make it to the funeral, I wanted you to at least know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. If I can help in any way later, please give me a call. louise.##imported-begin##Louise and Allen
