“ To the Dorn Family, I am praying that you will feel the presence of God's love as he comforts you and walks with you on this difficult path of life. My heart aches for each of you. I did not know Devin, but it sounds like he was a great young man. May God's promise of eternal life for those who believe that Jesus is their personal Savior bring you peace. My deepest sympathy,

“ In teaching almost two thousand students in 20 years I have never had an 18 year old more mature and well grounded than Devin. He was a real joy to be around when he was on the Cross Country team. I feel truly blessed to have had the opportunity to know him. It's a shame that Devin will not have the opportunity to touch more lives in the future.##imported-begin##Paul Norwine##imported-end##

“ I was so sad to hear of the loss of your beloved son, brother, and boyfriend. I can only imagine the pain you are going through. I enjoyed the pictures of Devin with his family and friends. I hope it comforts you to know how well he was loved and the wonderful life he lived. May God carry you through the days ahead until you meet again. Keeping you in prayer.-Laurie and Phil

Ps 121. It starts,

"I lift up my eyes to the hills-where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth."

My hope for you is that the One who actually created all things can give you the help you need to go back to daily life and carry on.

Another favorite of mine is Romans 8:26- for those times when you just can't pray.

"In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express."##imported-begin##Laurie Schurman Goodyk##imported-end##
