“ I really can't think of just 1 favorite memory of Aunt Donna because there are so many. I agree with Amie's comment. She always gave a hug and said "I love you" before you left her.

Aunt Donna was the most unselfish person I have ever known. She was happy as long as she had the basic needs of life and people that loved her around her.

I will miss her smile. I will miss her laughter. I will miss the way she liked to tease and joke around. I will miss the family stories she always told that were so funny to her, she could hardly finish telling it because she would laugh so hard that her eyes would water.

I will miss her hugs and all the love she had to give. I will miss sitting by her at the Kingdom Hall. Singing the songs together and holding hands during the prayer.

I will miss everything about Aunt Donna but I won't miss her forever.....Just till Paradise.
