“ My dearest Pete, words cannot express how very sorry we are to hear about Dodie. She was just the coolest person ever, and we loved her. She was one of a kind and that made her even more special. We hope our words can be some sort of comfort to you, and know we love you too.

“ It is hard to say goodbye to such a good friend of 43 years. Dodie, always the shoulder to lean on when times were tough and always the person who seemed to be the one having the most fun doing anything. I have and always will have great memories of fun times and the hard times that were better with her around. As I think of Dodie today my tears are for how much I will miss her and my laughter for the joyous memories she leaves me with.##imported-begin##Sheila Winter##imported-end##
