“ My deepest sympathies to Dorothy's family. I'm also sorry I didn't get to make it to the services. I thought a great deal of Dorothy. We had known each other for many years. I knew the whole family and feel really bad I didn't make it. She was a fantastic lady. My deepest sorrows.##imported-begin##Shirley LeGrand (Anselm)##imported-end##

“ I worked with Dot at Schultz family store. She was such a fun person, we shared many laughs together. She was a kind and considerate lady. I wish there was something I could say that would make her passing easier for you, but that is not possible. Hold on to your faith in God and he will see you through the pain, and fill your heart with sunlight and joy again as you cherish all your fond memories of Dot. God bless your families.
