“ Evelyn was a saint! She put up with Don and me with hardly a cross word for all those years no matter what mischief we got into; she was a second mom to me and the last of my mom's close friends. Evelyn never failed to send a birthday card and Christmas card regardless of where she was. I loved her and will miss her. My brotherly love goes to Alice, Judy and Joyce.

“ Evelyn, you will be missed. I spent many wonderful times, with you and Joyce, over a cookie. Never did I leave without laughing at you or myself. You had a way of making laughter out of everything. I remember when you had to quit driving and living on your own. Life has many changes but laughter never was one of them. We all will miss not being able to call but I know now why we had to scream (your hearing-aid was in the drawer.) Now that is funny. It makes my heart thrilled to know you are with Yeshua, Jesus our Saviour. One day we will laugh together again. Friend, Mary Shipley Holbrook Jones

“ I am sorry for your family's loss. I hope your family can find comfort in the words recorded at Revelation 21:4 where it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ A better Aunt has never been. I can see that old black car loaded with her and her children coming to visit us on the farm. She was a family treasure and will be remembered fondly by all. her strong Faith in God will reward her in Heaven. She was a strong woman and I'm a better person for having my Aunt Evi.

“ I will remember my visits with her and Harry in Rensselaer, IN; staying in her home, eating all of her good food; and watching the birds. I enjoyed our many conversations on the phone about books we were reading and telling our stories. I liked finding ways to make her laugh with me on the phone. I appreciated her allowing me to call her "Mom", and that she signed her cards to me with the same. She is the one who discovered that we have a geneological connection; so remember that girls; we are cousins from out there somewhere!

“ What a precious child of God! I will miss her smiles, her sense of humor, and her gentle spirit. She truly brightened my day every time I saw her!
