“ My deepest sympathy to Everett's family and all who loved him. How blessed I was to know him if only for a brief time. Wishing him all the blueberry muffins and popcorn his belly can hold in heaven. Wishing his family, love and peace in his memory. What a wonderful spirit he was on this earth!###imported-begin###Kathy Wukmer###imported-end###

“ God has taken a very special man from the ones he loves to be with him. We might not understand at this point and time why but I can say one thing God has the most loving stubborn man that was created he was more like a father to me then my own and I will always love him for that. Him and my mother were to peas in a pod only if she could have met him earlier he was her angel and she was his. I nor my mother and family will never forget the most loving man ever created for my family

I love you and always will have a special place in my heart
