“ Dear Goad families,
My condolences on the passing of Fred. I graduated with Fred in 1969. Losing a loved one is never easy. May you gather strength from the support of friends and loved ones, and find comfort in your memories of him. Even though his life was short, I'm sure Fred was able to live his life to the fullest. God bless and watch over you all.##imported-begin##Cheryl (Schultz) Oreskovich##imported-end##

“ God bless the memory of this gentleman and may God give peace to his family - Fred was a dear friend of my brother Ed Michal and was in his wedding - I remember him as a young vibrant man full of life and goodwill - now his suffering is over and he enjoys the best of health and we will see him again someday

Sincerely

Lt Col Neal J. Michal, Jr.

“ To the family of Fredrick Goad:
It is always sad to loss a very dear member of the family and the community. It causes us much sorrow. It is my hope as a volunteer to bring to the family a comforting thought. In the Bible book of John chapter 11:11, 14, Jesus likens death to sleep. Thinking of our loved ones as in a deep sleep can bring us peace of mind and heart. We know they are not suffering. Further words of Jesus point to a happy future for our loved ones. He says at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, because all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Yes, there is true hope for an awakening from this sleep. We can be confident that all those in God's memory will receive a resurrection. What a beautiful promise! Please accept our deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ My prayers are with you and your family. I am sure you do not remember me. I am a cousin. My mother is Dorothy Rowe. Her parents were Troy and Grace Goad. I think Grandpa Troy was a brother or cousin to your father. Sadly, over the years we lose contact with family members.##imported-begin##sheila (rowe)best##imported-end##
