

George Coennen

September 16, 1942 - February 2, 2021

George Coennen, age 78, of DeMotte, IN, passed away on Tuesday, February 2, 2021 at Cedar Creek Health Campus in Lowell, IN.

George was born on September 16, 1942 near Pittsburgh, PA, the son of Harold and Sue (Uzik) Coennen. He graduated from Allegheny High School in Pittsburgh and served in the United States Army.

George was a maintenance electrician at the Amoco/BP refinery in Whiting, IN where he retired in 1999 after 22 years of dedicated service. He was an automobile enthusiast and a diehard fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers. He enjoyed all things nature and the great outdoors, especially boating, fishing and camping.

George is survived by his 3 children: William, Shawn and Patrick (Jennifer) and his 7 grandchildren: Joshua, Samantha, Shane, Hailey, Hope, Hunter and Shannon. George was preceded in death by his parents.

With respect to CDC pandemic guidelines, all services for George will be private. He will be laid to rest near his mother in DeMotte Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that contributions be made in George's honor to the Robert Fase Senior Center in DeMotte, IN. This not for profit organization serves local seniors by providing a dependable source of nutritious meals and by facilitating valuable social interaction opportunities through their well-planned event and activity offerings.

“ George was one of the sweetest people I've ever met. I loved his company and enjoyed being one of his caregivers. We spent very weekday at the Fase Center. He enjoyed everything except BINGO!! He had a smile for everyone he met. He is greatly missed
