

George Henry Mott

July 20, 1933 - June 14, 2016

George H. Mott, age 82, of Rensselaer, IN., passed away at the Rensselaer Care Center on Tuesday, June 14, 2016. George was born in Hammond, IN on July 20, 1933, the son of George and Blanche Mott. He grew up around the Hammond area and attended Calumet City High School. George was a retired auto mechanic and worked for Bohling Dodge in Hammond, IN. He was a former Boy Scout Leader, and enjoyed building and working on race cars. George also had a passion for photography and making slides. He liked antiques and going to flea markets, and had an extensive beer can collection. George was also an active member in the Isaac Walton League.

Surviving are his brother Jack Edward Mott of Idaho Falls, Idaho, nieces and nephews Sandra Bukur, Chuckie Mott, Carolyn and Melissa. He is preceded in death by his sister Blanche Schmid and nephew Gary Schmid.

Tribute Wall

“ Sande,

I'm so sorry about your Uncle George. May he rest in peace.

Veronica

Dave Witt - July 07, 2016 at 02:35 PM