“ George and Rosie were our next door neighbors (both on the north and south) for almost 40 years. They were the very best neighbors in the whole world. I love them dearly and will always be grateful for their kindness. We had a lot of greats time living on that road !! My thoughts and prayers are with Rosie, Gerry, Cindy, Edna and the whole family.

“ I have such fond memories of Uncle George, both growing up in Indiana, and also the many times he and Aunt Rose would visit my parents here in Wisconsin. He always had an easy smile and time to spend with us and our family. We will miss you, Uncle George! We know you are singing with the angels in Heaven, walking with Jesus!
