

George A. Witczak Jr.

December 27, 1968 - May 26, 2026

George Anthony Witczak, Jr., age 57, of DeMotte, Indiana, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at Southlake Methodist Hospital in Merrillville.

George was born on December 27, 1968, in Chicago, Illinois, to George Sr. and Margaret Witczak. He worked as a self-employed mechanic for many years, a career that reflected his lifelong passion for cars and engines. George enjoyed working on vehicles, attending and watching asphalt races, watching his kids race, and spending time hunting. He was a proud member of the Roselawn Hunting Club.

On March 9, 1990, George married the love of his life, Lisa Long. Together they built a life centered around family, hard work, and lasting memories. George was known for his generous heart and willingness to help anyone in need. Above all else, he cherished time spent with his family and loved gathering together whenever he could.

George is lovingly survived by his wife, Lisa Witczak; his father, George Sr.; his children, Amanda, Anthony, and Maggie (Tony); and his five beloved grandchildren, Addie "Mouse," Jaxx, Bristol, Beretta, and Georgie. He is also survived by his siblings, Frank, Christine, Margie, and Ted.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Margaret Witczak.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Jackson Funeral Service of DeMotte has been entrusted with cremation rites.

“ I am so sorry to hear this. You two made my life so much fun when I lived by you. George was the most dedicated person I know. From the MTBE days to helping anyone who needed help. He was always available. I know for a fact he was a dedicated and loving father and husband. My condolences to you all. Love you guys.
