“We send our love and deep sympathy as we grieve the death of your Husband, Dad and Grandpa-- a generous, kind and fun-loving man! We enjoyed friendship with your family in Pipestone, MN. Glen was so patient with our sons when they learned to ride his GO-carts! They always had such fun on the Musch acreage! We also have fond memories of your visit to us in Grand Rapids, MI as you shared stories of your ministry with CRWRC (now World Renew). Glen was so proud of your sewing classes, Cindy! Even though the fishing industry did not work out as you hoped, we know that many lives continue to be impacted by your sharing the love of Jesus there and all the places that you have lived. May God be very near as you walk this journey of grieving.

“ Hello
I was blessed to work with him while driving for Kros produce. He always had a + attitude and was open to listen gave room for error , heeded suggestion and never once showed anger when things on the route we're going Sour
Never gossip Just genuinely humble

I'm reminded that those who control their anger have great understanding; those with a hasty temper will make mistakes. He was truly a brother and friend
