

Glynn Watson Davis

March 6, 1958 - April 6, 2024

Glynn Watson Davis, aged 66, formerly of Rensselaer, Indiana, peacefully passed away on Saturday, April 6, 2024, at his residence in Medaryville, Indiana. He was born on March 6, 1958, in McRae, Georgia, to the late James and Leoma (Bryan) Davis.

Glynn dedicated much of his career to the road, serving as a company truck driver for Yellow Freight and contributing 16 years of his life to Chief Industries in Rensselaer. Additionally, he found fulfillment in part-time work at Travel America truck stop in DeMotte, Indiana.

Beyond his professional endeavors, Glynn found joy in following the Coal Racing Team, fervently supporting their late model figure 8 racing endeavors. He was also a member of the Pleasant Ridge Church in Francesville, IN.

Left to cherish Glynn's memory is his devoted wife of 32 years, Melinda (Dubree) Davis; his daughters, Victoria A. Fryer of Cloverdale, IN, and Terri Anderson of Rensselaer, IN; his grandchildren, Savanna Curtis, Breanna Davis, Kyndra Monteith, and Parker O'Neil; as well as his siblings, his twin brother, Leon (Wanda) Davis of Rochelle, GA, Billy Davis of Bonaire, GA, and Vivian (Jesse) Etheredge of Lessburg, GA.

Glynn is preceded in death by his parents and two sisters, Ruby Gibbs, and Rachel Carrol.

In accordance with his wishes, cremation rites have been selected.

Expressions of sympathy and condolences may be shared with the family at www.jacksonfuneral.com during this challenging time.

Tribute Wall

KH

“ *Melinda I am so sorry for your loss.
Karen Harrington*

Karen Harrington - April 23, 2024 at 11:46 AM

TM

“ Wow, this is very sad news. Glen was a good man.

Terri Matula - April 12, 2024 at 11:19 PM