“ I have a lot of memories of my Aunt Goldie growing up!:) She was a strong woman, outside in her garden.:) She was also, a great cook.:)

So out going, with a big kind heart!❤️

She was the kind of woman if you ever got a chance to meet her, you would love her & never forget her!❤️ People would say, she was my dad's twin.:) She was like a second mom to my dad growing up!❤️ Praying for all of our family!🙏 This 🗿 is up in Heaven now with all her loved ones!🗿 Love you Beautiful Angel Aunt Goldie!🗿

❤️ Love from your niece, Andrea❤️

“ I always loved it when Uncle Press and Goldie would come to Kentucky and visit us, to me that was a special time, I thought my uncle press was so handsome, and Goldie so pretty, she was always nice to me, she always told me I was a pretty little girl and someday would grow into a beautiful woman, that made me feel special,(I'm all grown up now I'm still waiting on that beautiful woman) R.I.P Aunt Goldie you're with Uncle Press again, we are all going to miss you, see you later.
