

Hal George Gray

July 6, 1926 - February 8, 2019

Hal G. Gray released life on February 8, 2019.

Hal was born July 6, 1926 on his grandmother's farm one mile north and one mile west of Windfall, Tipton County, Indiana. He was the son of James L. and Fern Mitchell Gray. His family moved to Tipton when he was 9 months old. He graduated from Tipton High School with the Class of 1944.

He started working at age 11 when he had a paper route and washed windows for downtown stores on Saturday. During his high school years he worked one summer for the Continental Can Company in Elwood, two summers on a farm and after graduation for the Perfect Circle Piston Ring Company. He often related, in an amusing way, that he wondered how many planes crashed during WW II because of the rings that he turned out on his lathe. He often imagined that just before the plane hit the water the pilot said "Damn the guy that made these rings."

He was inducted into the army in 1944 and had basic training in Camp Fannin near Tyler, Texas. He served with the 36th Infantry Division in central and southern Germany and later transferred to the 771st Tank Battalion. He was discharged in 1946 and worked a few months at the ALCOA factory in Lafayette, Indiana.

He earned his Bachelor's Degree from the Jordan Conservatory of Music in Indianapolis in 1950 and his Master Of Music Degree in 1955 from the Butler University School of Music. He spent a year at Wabash College as Chapel Organist and accompanist for the Wabash Glee Club. He often said "I didn't make much money but oh what a wonderful year that was." After his Wabash experience he was employed for two years in Frankfort, Indiana as a clerk in the Westbound Yard Office for the old Nickel Plate Railroad. He enjoyed the excitement of watching the trains arrive and depart the yard. The trains were all steam at that time.

In 1952 he came to Rensselaer and taught music in the public schools for 35 years and at the same time worked in the City Parks and served as organist for the First Christian Church of Rensselaer for 28 years. He retired from teaching in 1986 and then took the position as Superintendent of the Rensselaer Park Department and did retire in 1991.

He was a member of the First Christian Church of Rensselaer and held many posts during his long association. He was especially pleased when the congregation voted him the honor of being an "Elder Emeritus." He was also a seventy year member of the Masonic Clinton Lodge No. 54 in Frankfort, Indiana.

On August 20, 1955, he married Marcia Parkison in her parent's farm home in Gilliam Township, Jasper County, Indiana. Marcia passed away on October 19, 2015. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on August 20, 2015 when the family was here for their summer reunion.

He was preceded in death by his wife, a sister, Eileen Gray Higgins of Tipton Indiana and a brother John T. Gray of Tampa, Florida and a nephew, Robert Higgins of Noblesville. Surviving him is a daughter, Eileen Ann (James) Phegley of Rensselaer and a son, Kenton (Mary Ellen) Gray of Winthrop, Massachusetts. He was blessed with five grandchildren, Patrick, Cory and

Shannon Dowds and Sean and Michael Gray. He is also survived by a nephew, Hal Gray Higgins of Peona, Arizona. He has two great grandchildren, Callie Gray and Madden James and was so pleased to have her middle name in his honor. He often admitted that they were the most beautiful children. ·

He and Marcia often visited their son in Winthrop, Massachusetts (in the Boston area.) Their son lives just a block from the Atlantic Ocean and they loved visiting the beach and watching the waves roll in and the gulls flying all about. They decided that in their next life they would come back as beachcombers so Hal's family now surmises that he has now jointed Marcia on Winthrop Beach.

He had many hobbies. Among them was painting with water colors, photography and had a dark room set up in his home. He loved classic automobiles of the 1930's and 40's and assembled model kits of over 70 of these cars. He also fed the birds, squirrels and rabbits for sixty years enjoying identifying them as they fed in his yard. He was always pleased when a new species would arrive at his feeder.

Hal so loved Rensselaer and enjoyed his life here with his family and friends. According to Hal's wishes there will be no services at this time. A Celebration of Life will be planned for a later date.

“Forty years ago, I was an exchange student from Japan at Purdue University. Mr. Gray’s son Kent, who lived in the same dormitory as I, was my best American friend. He kindly invited me to stay with his family in Rensselaer in Indiana during the winter break. Mr. Gray gave me a word-game SCRABBLE as a Christmas present. He was always very kind to me, so was his wife. I had a great time, surrounded by warm-hearted people.

After coming back to Japan, I began to teach English at high school. I taught at several different schools. Regrettably, I lost my address book somewhere when I moved. I have occasionally searched for Kent Gray since the Internet became popular. Today I happened to find Kent’s father’s obituary. I’d like to contact Kent. Could anyone tell me Kenton Gray’s address? I’d really appreciate it. Koji Suzuki

“I thought of Hal while sitting in my car at the park listening to music during the Coronavirus outbreak and am sad to find that he recently passed. Listening to a variety of music, as I am doing now, still always makes me think of Hal and elementary school. He had such wonderful presence and patience as he taught restless kids to understand and appreciate music. So many of us were lucky to have him as a teacher a mentor. Condolences to Eileen and Kenton.

“ Hal Gray you will be missed but never forgotten. You made us all strive to seek out higher potential when we couldn't find it in ourselves. Wee singers and candy bars thrown in a circle on the gymnasium floor are some of my fondest memories. Many thanks for all the lives you positively impacted.

“ Thank you Mr. Gray for teaching us all how fun music can be. I've been blessed in this community with some wonderful music teachers. I can't imagine my life without singing. I'll continue to carry the music torch and do my best representing the team in good ol' Rensselaer. God Blessed your piano hands, music mind, and love for your profession. And sharing those blessings with us will always be remembered. ❤️🎵❤️

“ We have many wonderful memories of both Hal and his lovely wife. We were married at First Christian Church and raised our children there. We shared many lovely Church moments throughout the years. Also, Denny's summer job when he was in High School was with the City Park working for Hal. He enjoyed their conversations and lunch breaks together. Denny says he learned a lot listening to him. He certainly was respected and will be missed by so many.

“ I have SO many wonderful memories of Hal and Marcia and continue to look back on them with great fondness even after moving away 50 years ago. The mark that Hal made in my life was indelible. It was "Mr. Gray" who was initially responsible for instilling in me the love of music that I've carried within me throughout my life. When I was in the 3rd grade, Marcia and then Hal, together with my mother, began writing all my scripts as I began performing my ventriloquism act with my dummy, Jerry, and did so for a number of years.

I remember singing in his group, The Wee Singers. What a thrill it was when we were invited to sing for President Eisenhower on the courthouse lawn on "Charlie Halleck Day". For a little kid, it was pretty special shaking the president's hand. Thank you Hal for this memory too!

I would go on to work for Hal in high school as a lifeguard when he managed the pool during the summers. These are but a very few of the countless memories of a great man and of a special time growing up in Rensselaer.

I try to make it back to Rensselaer for my high school reunions. In 2008, at our 40th, when the alumni banquet and reunions were still held at St. Joe, I happened to notice Hal and Marcia during dinner sitting across the room. After dinner, I made my way over to them and asked, "Mr. Gray, do you remember me?" He looked at me for a minute and said, "No, but I sure remember your dummy!" We had a good laugh and spent some time reminiscing.

Hal, thank you for the input you placed into my life. It has served me well and I will continue to carry it with me throughout the rest of my days. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." You're in our prayers Eileen.

“ Such a wonderful man who taught us some of the best songs as kids. I still remember at the end of class how he would let us bring in a vinyl record and he would play one song from it for the class to hear. I think I brought in the Michael Jackson Thriller album in 4th grade. He is the reason for my love of music today. He will certainly be missed in all of our hearts. <3 Thoughts and prayers to his family and to all of the lives he touched in some way.

“ Mr. Gray brought music into my life and it remains today because of him. A few years ago, I played a Sunday service in Rensselaer. Afterwards he came up to me, thanked me and said he had no idea I could play "like that." I told him it was because of he introduced me to the fun of music at such an early age. He said, "Keep playing always!" Ironically, and sadly, this past week I was playing and thought about how it was time to play again and that it would make him smile. A few days later, he was gone. He captured our hearts and it remained that way. He will be missed.
