“ Pops, I could never of hand picked a better father in law! You were an amazing father in law, father, grandfather, and friend to so many. You always had that special way and special bond with each one of us all. Your grandchildren all adored you and thought you were the best grandpa ever! You earned those wings, pops. Fly high! You are loved and missed by so many. I'll never celebrate my birthday again, instead, I will celebrate your life every year on the day you left us. You will live on in our hearts and homes everyday! Your memories will love on forever! Rest in peace now pops. You are now pain free and dancing on those streets of gold! “ I remember the night we were racing and he pulled into the infield. He came in and I asked him what happened and he told me nothing he just needed a smoke. He will be missed greatly he always had a kind word but was very protective of all his kids. We love you Ray keep racing up there and keep it fair.
