“ After a while you learn

The subtle difference Between holding a hand and chaining a soul.

And you learn

*That love doesn't mean leaning
And company doesn't mean security.*

And you begin to learn

*That kisses aren't contracts
And presents aren't promises.
And you begin to accept your defeats
With your head up and your eyes ahead
With the grace of a woman or a man
Not the grief of a child.
And you learn to build all your roads on today Because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for Plans, and futures have a way of falling down
In mid-flight.*

After a while you learn

*That even sunshine burns if you ask too much.
So you plant your own garden and decorate your own soul
Instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers.*

And you learn

*That you really can endure.
That you really are strong and* *you really do have worth.

And you learn
With every goodbye
You learn...*
