“ To the family ....So sorry for your loss. In 1954 Lloyd and I needed a home. At that time Lloyd had a Sinclair gas station, he was friends with Cal and they agreed to exchange gasoline for Cal's vehicles for down payment on our first little house on Emilie Street. If it were not for his kindness and generosiy we would never have afforded a home that we loved dearly. .Will never forget him...Sincerely..June##imported-begin##June Simmons##imported-end##
