

Helen D. Printy

November 7, 2007

Helen Printy, a long time resident of Newton County, Indiana, passed away on November 7, 2007, at the Rensselaer Care Center at the age of 97.

Born on December 9, 1909, Helen was the daughter of William Thomas Porter and Nannie L. (Blankenbaker) Porter. Helen was raised on a farm in Jasper County, along with her sisters Bertha, Ruth, and Alice and her brothers, Ira and Clayton. On May 16, 1942, Helen married James A. Printy, Jr., in the Methodist Church of Morocco, Indiana. Her husband left soon after the wedding for active duty in the Army during WWII. After his discharge, they settled down in Enos, where they owned a farm and raised their daughter, Jewel Ann, who survives her. Helen was a gifted baker and enjoyed sharing her pies and cakes. Helen's nieces and nephews were all delighted when she stopped by on their birthdays because she would deliver towering birthday cakes with glorious icing. Those cakes always featured prominently in the birthday photographs! Funeral services have been arranged through the Jackson Funeral Chapel of Rensselaer. A family service will be held at the Oakland Cemetery in Morocco, Indiana.
