Hilda was a very lovely lady with a heart for the Lord. Some years ago, she went on a mission trip to Henderson Settlement in Frakes, KY With the Mount Ayr UMC. She was a wonderful companion and hard worker. She must've been in her 80s at that time. We were truly amazed at her stamina. My condolences to Margaret and the rest of the family.

I remember that well Jackie. She was that strong and determined in everything she did! Hard working lady and very rarely missed a day of work. Thank you. Margaret
