Though I only met Holly twice, I loved her smile which truly came from her heart that had to be filled with love. Kevin I know her loss is great but be comforted that she is at rest in our savior.

“ We had a special fellowship for several years here in Utah. Holly and Kevin were such a vital part of our group. My wife Michele, was blessed numerous times by Holly's testimonies and Christ like counsel. Even though we were seperated these past few years, Holly was still there even if by e-mail to encourage. Holly also had that humorous side that was not course but would give us a good laugh! Holly modeled love in different ways to different people. Her consistent and constant devotion to the Lord through prayer was an inspiration to me and our group. We know that according to God's word, Holly is with Him having run the race and finished well. I can picture Holly rejoicing with The Lord and loving on people that have already departed from us as well as cheering us on! Holly, we miss you already and we look forward to rejoicing together someday soon!

“ I am sorry for your loss, but I know that Holly is safely resting in God's loving arms. As I read about her life and looked at the photos here I was overwhelmed with all the love that has happened. May that love of family, may faith and may kind friends guide you to acceptance. I offer my favorite Bible verse from Exodus - "I am am sending an angel before thee, to keep thee in thy way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared." May she be your angel now.

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss. I went to school for a few years with Holly back in the day! I remember what a sweet and great person she was. I didn't know how to make friends moving from school to school, but Holly was the one person to come up and make friends with me. May you rest in peace Holly! God bless
