From the time I wad a small child, Pete had a presence in my life. Mary was the best thing that happened in his life.

When my mother, Leona (a/k/a Onie) was dying of cancer, Pete and Mary had to postpone their wedding.

However, I can recall seeing Pete throwing his white gloves into my mother's grave when I was 10. He was also the only one I remember at the 3 day wake asking me if I was ok.

Moving forward from there, he and Mary were always a part of my life. Including the blankets Mary made for every family member, the clothes they delivered for me from Pete's mom, Florence, as I grew up!

Amongst other memories! Great people!

“ Best first cousin. Great guy and he will be missed! Age is only a number he once told me but he also said that passing does not negate your relationship. Once a cousin, always a cousin. Once a parent, always that parent!

The love goes with you!

RIP and happy fushing!
