“ We want to send our most sincere condolences to all of Irene’s children, family and friends. Chuck and I have many great memories of meeting Irene and Bob at local restaurants for breakfast after Mass at St. Cecilia’s. Lots of laughter and reminiscing about school, friends and family. May all your wonderful memories sustain you at this difficult time. Sincerely, Chuck and Irma Coddington

“ Irene was always very proud of all her grandchildren and loved to make crafts to commentate their birthdays. She had numerous picture collages of all the kids displayed in their home. ❤️
