“ When a loved one dies, it causes us much sorrow. When something beautiful in our lives disappears it is missed very much. It is my hope as a volunteer to bring to the family of Irene Ulm a comforting thought. In the Bible book of John chapter 11:11,14, Jesus likens death to sleep. Thinking of our loved ones as in a deep sleep can bring us peace of mind and heart. Further words of Jesus point to a happy future for our loved ones. He says at John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this, because all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Yes, there is true hope for an awakening from this sleep. We can be confident that all those in God's memory will receive a resurrection. I hope this brings you comfort as it has me. Please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Jackie##imported-end##

“ We can not see our loved ones when they die, but their love surrounds us, cares for us, watches over us. They pray for us there -- so, too, we should continue to pray for them here.

Irene was very dear to us -- a special sister-in-law, so loving to my brother, Marvin. We have so many good memories of times spent together. We are grateful to God to have had her as part of our family. We will miss her. Our Sincere Sympathy to her loved ones.##imported-begin##Marsha and Denny Rule##imported-end##
