“ I don't think I have ever seen Irene without that smile. She always had a kind thing to say about everyone. She made the BEST potato salad! May she rest in peace. Death may steal our loved ones from us but it can NEVER steal our memories. Our deepest sympathies to Al, David, Carol and the many grandchildren, nices and nephews, aunt & uncles who had the privilege to know such a wonderful person. Keeping all of you surrounded in our thought and prayers during this time of grief. Our deepest sympathies. Elsa & Charles Mayton Sr. Chicago Heights, Illinois

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all, Carol, Alan and David. I loved going to your house and playing. Your mom always made the best meals. Especially desserts, even now we call it Aunt Irene's cheesecake. Irene and Bud, Joe and Evelyn are doing a heavenly Polka. May God bless you with His peace. Monica Bessinger
