

Isabel A. Schrum

December 15, 1918 - May 22, 2013

Isabel A. Schrum, 94, died peacefully at the Keepsake Village Memory Care Center on Wednesday, May 22, 2013. She was born December 15, 1918 in Cherry Hill, NJ, the daughter of the late John and Isabelle Aregood.

Isabel met and married her late husband, Wilmer, in San Diego, California. She moved with him to the farm near Rensselaer, Indiana. Isabel worked tirelessly helping Wilmer run the farm and chicken business, while at the same time raising their four children. God was always at the center of Isabel's life and she was very active in her church - first at McCoysburg Methodist Church and then at Trinity United Methodist Church. Her passion and delight were in Wilmer and her family. She loved taking care of flowers and always had a beautiful display of them around her home.

Survivors include son David Schrum, daughter Janet Hammoudeh and son-in-law Fuad, son Thomas Schrum and daughter-in-law Dixie, and son James Schrum, seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Isabel was preceded in death by her daughter-in-law Debra Schrum.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests memorials to the Trinity United Methodist Church, 107 E. Angelica Street, Rensselaer, IN 47978.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Isabel's family and friends. May the promise recorded at Revelation 21:4 bring you hope and comfort. It says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". I am truly sorry for your loss.
