“ I remember the Miller family as being an all American family. Bill worked hard every day and Norma stayed home cooked, cleaned, and took care of the children (among many other housewife duties). I was a teenager when the Jim and Donnie were still little kids (I'm three years older than Jim). So I didn't really hang out with them, but I knew who they were. Jim and my brother, Steve, were about the same age. After we grew up, Jim moved away, but not too far. We saw each other once in a while, (sometimes when he was back home and other times when we were in Lafayette). He always spoke kindly of his family - at first his wonderful wife and later each child - they were his world. My heart goes out to all of you - he was a good man, and will be greatly missed. You are all in my prayers.
